The Chicago Daily Tribune.

VOLUME XLIV. TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1884—TWELVE PAGES. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

THERE IS NO ONE DEAD AT OUR HOUSE!

THERE IS NO ONE SICK!

Everybody Connected, in Every Respect, Is Feeling Quite Well!

Why is it then, did we hear you say? Simply, we haven't an OVERSTOCK of OLD, OUT-OF STYLE GOODS bought below the market price because of its undesirability, to enable us to try to establish a Gift Enterprise.

Haven't got to go into mourning on account of sins committed in buying goods that have been made for the past THREE or FOUR YEARS to try to establish an enterprise foreign to a legitimate business.

We always have, and shall continue to buy, the NEWEST, CLEANEST, and HANDSOMEST GOODS, made by the BEST KNOWN MAKERS.

We have already received for Fall Wear some very beautiful Suits. Yes, BEAUTIFUL. Suits you will be proud to go into society with. Suits you will not have to offer an apology for; won't have to say, It is one I am wearing while mine is being cleaned or repaired. You can stand right up, look a man square in the eyes, and do more business with one of our Suits on than with one of any other make.

Why? Because you will have paid LESS money for the same grade of Suit, and so have more money with which to DO business. DO YOU SEE?

HAVE JUST RECEIVED FROM

BROKAW BROS.

Suits which we think are simply ELEGANT. Would like an expression from you.
